The Twenty-second Sunday of Pentecost

© marydeandraws.com

Welcome and Announcements

Let us prepare our hearts for worship.

Confession and Forgiveness

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful, forgives our sins and cleanses us from all unrighteousness.

Let us then confess our sins in the presence of God and one another. To you, O God, all hearts are open; to you, all desires are known. We come to you confessing our sins. Forgive us in your mercy, and remember us in your love. Show us your ways; teach us your paths; and lead us in justice and truth, for the sake of your goodness in Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

By water and the Holy Spirit, God gives you a new birth, and through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, God forgives you all your sins. The God of mercy and, might strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The live-streaming of New Salem's worship services is made possible through a generous memorial gift from the family of Margaret Carlson.

Prayer of the Day

Together we pray: Sovereign God, you turn your greatness into goodness for all the peoples on earth. Shape us into willing servants of your kingdom, and make us desire always and only your will, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Reading of the WordFirst Reading: Isaiah 53:4-12

⁴Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. ⁵But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. ⁶All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

⁷He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. ⁸By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. ⁹They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.

¹⁰Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Lord shall prosper. ¹¹Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge.

The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. ¹²Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Word of God, Word of Life. Thanks be to God. (New Response)

Psalm: Psalm 91:9-16

⁹Because you have made the Lord your refuge, and the Most High your habitation,

¹⁰no evil will befall you, nor shall affliction come near your dwelling.

¹¹For God will give the angels charge over you, to guard you in all your ways.

¹²Upon their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.

¹³You will tread upon the lion cub and viper; you will trample down the lion and the serpent.

¹⁴I will deliver those who cling to me; I will uphold them, because they know my name.

¹⁵They will call me, and I will answer them; I will be with them in trouble; I will rescue and honor them.

¹⁶With long life will I satisfy them, and show them my salvation.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:12-16

¹²Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

¹⁴Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. ¹⁵For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Word of God, Word of Life. Thanks be to God. (New Response)

Children's MessageGospel Acclamation*God Welcomes All (sing 3 times)

God wel - comes all, strang - ers and friends;

God's love is strong and it nev - er ends.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

³⁵James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to him and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." ³⁶And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" ³⁷And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." ³⁸But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" ³⁹They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; ⁴⁰but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

⁴¹When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. ⁴²So Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. ⁴³But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, ⁴⁴and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. ⁴⁵For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Ministry Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers are urgently needed to assist with various Sunday ministries here at New Salem! Ushers, readers/Communion assistants, helpers to set up Communion before the worship service and tidy up afterward, offering counters (we will train you!), and hosts for our coffee fellowship after worship. Sign up as a family or team up with a friend or two!

Signup sheets are available on the back table in the Fellowship Hall. Remember: If no one signs up to host coffee fellowship, THERE IS NO COFFEE FELLOWSHIP. ☹️

Together we pray: Gracious God, you bless us with gifts of guidance, new life, growth in grace, and fruitful labor. Accept the first fruits of time and toil, field, and orchard. New Salem's October Mission Partner Northwoods Habitat for Humanity

Everyone deserves a decent place to live. An ecumenical, Christian ministry determined to end poverty housing in our community, Northwoods Habitat for Humanity was established in 1990. Since that time, 61 homes have been sold to families who needed nothing more than a hand-up to break the bonds of poverty. Habitat's vision and mission:

- Vision - A world where everyone has a decent place to live.
- Mission - Building simple, decent, affordable homes in partnership with God's people in need in Beltrami and Clearwater Counties.

A Foundation of Faith: Habitat for Humanity seeks to put God's love into action. Since 1976, Habitat has been built on a foundation of faith and Christian principles. The organization's mission is to build safe, affordable housing with people in the United States and around the world, which comes from a desire to put God's love into action.

Habitat for Humanity International and its affiliated organizations (Habitat for Humanity) will not proselytize, nor will Habitat for Humanity work with entities or individuals who insist on proselytizing as part of their work with Habitat for Humanity. This means that Habitat for Humanity will not offer assistance on the expressed or implied condition that people must (i) adhere to or convert to a particular faith or (ii) listen and respond to messaging designed to induce conversion to a particular faith.

For the month of October, New Salem is lifting up the work of Northwoods Habitat for Humanity. Please prayerfully consider how you might support this valuable community resource. You can bring/send your check to New Salem and indicate it is for Habitat and we will forward your gift to them. Or, you can send gifts directly to Northwoods Habitat for Humanity at P.O. Box 1067, Bemidji, MN 56619.

For more information on Northwoods Habitat for Humanity and how you can get involved with their work, visit their website at www.habitatbemidji.org

Hurricane Response

The Situation

In late September, Hurricane Helene hit the coast of Florida as a Category 4 hurricane and moved inland as a deadly storm, leaving devastation throughout the southeastern United States. The storm caused shocking, dangerous flooding, especially in western North Carolina and Tennessee, washing away whole towns and roads, leaving millions of people without power, and driving thousands from their homes.

Then Hurricane Milton hit Florida as a powerful Category 3 hurricane, bringing storm surge, heavy rains, winds and tornadoes. Milton is one of the strongest hurricanes to hit the area in decades. At least four people have died, and millions are without electricity. This storm is particularly devastating because many communities are only beginning to recover from Hurricane Helene, which hit the Southeast just two weeks ago.

Our Response

Lutheran Disaster Response works with its partners to provide immediate relief, such as water, food, clothing, gift cards, tarps and other needs. Since many hurricanes also require a long-term response, Lutheran Disaster Response provides support on the long road to recovery with disaster case management, construction management, attention to unmet needs, and emotional and spiritual care.

What You Can Do

Pray

Please pray for the safety of communities impacted by hurricanes, including people in their paths and any emergency services personnel who are responding. May God's healing presence give them peace and hope in their time of need. Pray that God will deliver comfort to those who mourn and strength to those working diligently to rescue survivors.

Give

Your gifts will support hurricane disaster-impacted communities and can be made via New Salem Lutheran Church. New Salem will receive your gifts of check or cash to "Hurricane Response" now through Sunday, November 10. Make your check payable to New Salem Lutheran Church and be sure to indicate "Hurricane Response" in the memo line. Should you wish to give cash, place it in an envelope and please also indicate in some manner that it is for "Hurricane Response."

Gifts to "Hurricane Response" will be used in full (100%) to assist those affected by hurricanes, until the response is complete.

THANK YOU! To all who participated in the fall highway clean up yesterday morning – your willingness to help out is greatly appreciated!

Thrivent Give Thanks Give Back: Again this fall, Thrivent is giving congregations an opportunity to help local Food Shelves. This year, when we collect 300 items, pile them up, take and submit a picture, $400 is given. The past couple years, we've focused on personal care items, which they always need, but this year we're going to focus on canned fruit which always seems to be in short supply. They often have canned pears, so think about peaches, pineapple, apricots, plums, fruit cocktail, mandarin oranges. Watch for sales! When you're picking up groceries each week, pick up a can or two to donate. We'll be collecting until November 15th and will take our picture on Sunday, November 17th. Thank you for your generosity!

Save the Date! Fall Craft and Bake Sale is November 2: Calling all crafters and bakers, this year's Craft and Bake Sale is scheduled for Saturday, November 2 from 9 a.m. – 3 p.m. New items are needed for the raffle table. Sign up pages for this event are available on the rear table in the Fellowship Hall.

Offering Reminder: Please remember to indicate on your check/offering envelope how you wish your gift to be credited. Unmarked offerings/those marked "general" go toward New Salem's annual operating expenses; gifts marked for other entities are credited as such in your giving record and sent to those organizations.
